

UC San Diego
INSTITUTE FOR PUBLIC HEALTH

Dear Members of the UC San Diego Institute for Public Health:

SAVE THE DATE for this unique opportunity and dynamic speaker:

Adrian Bauman, MBBS, PhD
Sesquicentenary Professor of Public Health
Director, Prevention Research Collaboration
University of Sydney, Australia

“Changes Over Time to the Epidemiological Evidence on the Health Consequences of Prolonged Sitting – Do We Need to Stand Up?”

DATE: Thursday, February 23, 2017

RSVP BY Monday, February 6, 2017 to vsaddler@ucsd.edu

TIME: 1:15 pm – 2:00 pm

LOCATION: Garren Auditorium
Biomedical Science Building (BSB)
(Joining Class # EPI 101)

Professor Adrian Bauman
The University of Sydney, Australia

Adrian Bauman is the Sesquicentenary Professor of Public Health and Director of the Prevention Research Collaboration at the University of Sydney, Australia. He also leads the Physical Activity and Exercise theme in the Charles Perkins Centre, a 900 person Institute at Sydney University. His research carries a special focus on physical activity and public health. Professor Bauman also co-directs the WHO Collaborating Centre on Physical Activity, Nutrition and Obesity. He is well-published in the scientific literature (and was named in the 2015 Thompson Reuter list of the most cited researchers). He works extensively in public health research translation and scaling up research, as well as in the areas of complex program evaluation and systems approaches to prevention.

Sponsored by:

The UC San Diego Institute for Public Health
The Department of Family Medicine and Public Health
The Division of Global Health & The Division of Behavioral Medicine