Public Health Research Day Symposium Agenda
April 4, 2018

1:30 - Introduction & Welcome from the Institute of Public Health
Michael Pratt, MD, MSPE, MPH
Professor, Department of Family Medicine and Public Health
Director, Institute for Public Health and MPH Program

1:35 - Welcome from the Department of Family Medicine and Public Health
Cheryl Anderson, PhD, MPH, MS
Associate Professor and Chair, Department of Family Medicine and Public Health

1:40 – “An Update on Public Health at UC San Diego”
Douglas Ziedonis, MD, MPH
Associate Vice Chancellor for Health Sciences
Professor, Department of Psychiatry
Chair, Executive Council for Proposed UC San Diego School of Public Health

1:55 – Introduction of Plenary Speaker
Cinnamon Bloss, PhD
Associate Professor, Departments of Psychiatry and Family Medicine and Public Health
Chair, Public Health Research Day Planning Committee

2:00 - Plenary Presentation: “Putting Genomics in Context to Promote Health”
Ellen Wright Clayton, MD, JD
Rosalind E. Franklin Professor of Genetics & Craig-Weaver Professor of Pediatrics
Department of Health Policy, Vanderbilt University School of Medicine
Professor of Law, Vanderbilt University School of Law

2:45 - Announcement of Poster Session Awards
Britta Larsen, PhD
Assistant Professor, Department of Family Medicine and Public Health
Public Health Research Day Planning Committee

Borsika Rabin PhD
Assistant Professor, Department of Family Medicine and Public Health
Public Health Research Day Planning Committee

2:55 - Closing and Transition to Poster Session
Michael Pratt, MD, MSPE, MPH
Professor, Department of Family Medicine and Public Health
Director, Institute for Public Health and MPH Program

3:00 - 5:00 - Poster Session

Professor Clayton’s Presentation sponsored by: