

The Climate Change and Health Speaker Series presents

Art and Science in Our Changing Climate

Great Hall, International House, UC San Diego
Thursday, May 25th at 4:00pm

Featured Speakers

Dr. Alexander Gershunov

Research Meteorologist, Scripps Institution of Oceanography, UCSD
"Weather on Steroids - Collaboration of Art and Science in our Changing Climate"

Dr. Tatiana Sizonenko

Curator, Weather on Steroids | Gallery Curator for UCSD University Art Gallery
"How Can Art and Science Collaborate on Climate Change"

Dr. Oscar Romo

Professor, UCSD Urban Studies and Planning

Dr. Bradley S. Moore

Professor, Scripps Institution of Oceanography,
Skaggs School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences

Dr. Tarik Benmarhnia

Assistant Professor, Scripps Institution of Oceanography and UCSD School of Medicine
"Impacts on Health from Changing Precipitation in a Warmer World"

Dr. Jennifer Vanos

Assistant Professor, Scripps Institution of Oceanography and UCSD School of Medicine
"Personalizing Weather and Health Interactions Today and Tomorrow"